

ARABIAN HORSE ASSOCIATION

REGION I

Director's Message

From Kathy Callahan-Smith

The 2022 Rose Parade was a huge success, thanks to Nancy Harvey. We were the first Equestrian Group in the parade and got over a minute of TV air time. Equestfest at LAEC had a large turnout of spectators and we were on RFD-TV for some great exposure for the Arabian Breed. Our booth with Arabian promotional goodies was a big hit and got a lot of traffic. I can't thank the volunteers enough! The Pit Crew, Walkers, Equestfest Participants, Booth Volunteers and Parade Riders came from Regions 1,2, 3 & 7. Thanks again to Region One and the AHA MDP for their financial support in this endeavor.

The AHA Convention will be in person this year in Myrtle Beach, SC. Remember, it is a week earlier, November 9-12, 2022. Look for lots of new programs for everyone and check for any updates on the AHA website. The Convention Planning Committee is looking for pictures and videos of what our Region is doing this year. So send me any you'd like to submit. kcsequestrian@aol.com

Be sure you look at the new qualifications for Regional and National shows on the AHA website. This is a floating document, which means it can change as needed. It is currently based on the availability of classes at most Arabian shows. When you show, all AVS and USEF rated shows count. Remember, if you are disqualified, eliminated, retired, etc, that participation will not count. Check it out...and read the entire document!

Canadian Nationals is a go this year! Youth Nationals will be held this year again with Mid-Summer Nationals. MSN will have new and different trophies, specific to that show. Sport Horse Nationals has added some new classes and US is expected to be big again this year.

EHV-1 has reared its ugly head and 2 of our club shows have had to change their Spring dates. Look for the new dates and please support them with participating or a sponsorship.

Region One welcomes our new Regional Show Manager, long time member, Rich Whitley. He is working hard and we look forward to all the skills he brings with him. Speaking of Regionals...we need volunteers! The Regional Show is May 18-22, 2022. Support the show any way you can, by a sponsorship, or helping for 2 hours, a session or a whole day. Contact Mimi at gaffey@cox.net

Again, we couldn't do this without our great Volunteers!

Signing off...
